

About Us

The Northern Virginia Delta Education and Community Service (NVDECS) Foundation, a public 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization established in 1992, is chartered and registered in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Mission

The mission of the NVDECS Foundation is to make a positive difference in the community by playing a supportive role in providing educational, civic, literary and charitable programs for the Northern Virginia community.

Community Commitment

Through its partnership with the Northern Virginia Alumnae Chapter (NoVAC) of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., NVDECS Foundation provides community services in the form of outreach programs, educational scholarships, community forums and financial support.

Building, Strengthening, and Supporting the Community

Our priorities for building, strengthening, and supporting the community include:

- Providing annual educational scholarships to students who reside in the Northern Virginia areas of Alexandria, Arlington, Falls Church, and Fairfax City.
- Fostering a love of reading by providing age appropriate new books to youth throughout the year.
- Promoting youth development activities designed to equip elementary students with skills necessary to pass State-mandated tests and enhance reading and math comprehension, prevent teenage pregnancies, introduce middle school girls to diverse career options, and encourage high school graduation and enrollment in postsecondary education programs.

- Promoting and providing health and educational services and social activities for senior citizens.
- Introducing youth and adults to cultural programs and activities.
- Promoting economic and financial literacy to all age groups.

What We Fund

The NVDECS Foundation uses its funds to provide grants to the Northern Virginia Alumnae Chapter (NoVAC) of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., including grants for some of the community's favorite activities such as:

- ❖ Reading is Fundamental (RIF)
- ❖ Strengthening Our Leaders (SOL) Tutoring Program
- ❖ Project Esther

NVDECS Foundation also supports non-profit activities of community organizations in our service area whose programs address the Foundation's mission and commitment to community service.
